Ant-man and the Red Queen

by kwong20000

Summary

Scott and Hope have never met before. Scott became Ant-man, but Hope is opposed to this idea. When Hank was shot by Darren, Hope thought Scott did not protect her father well so she wants to take the suit back at all costs.

First Meet

Chapter Summary

The Pym Tech's building was destroyed by bomb one year ago. Scott stopped Darren's evil plan successfully, but Hank has passed away, he felt guilty because he didn't protect Hank from that day.

Today is opening ceremony of Pym Technologies new headquarter. Dr Bill Foster, as known as Hank's working partner, has been appointed by the board of directors as the Pym Tech's new CEO.

Scott become an Avenger and consultant of Pym Tech. And Hope was invited, this is their first meet.

"Do you feel awkward at party, Scott?" Bill walk next to Scott, and asked.

"Dr. Foster. Well...I am not used to attending balls actually. I don't know how to deal with the guest." Scott puts on a fake smile, he has to attend the ceremony since he is now involved with Pym Tech, but he can't help but feel sad and guilty about the passing of Hank. Even still, he has to pretend to be happy today. "I'm just a small potato."

"There will be many events in the future, and the annual anniversary should be like now."

"You're our consultant. Don't forget, you're the Avenger too." Bill gave advice on the upgrade of the suit in the past. Despite Scott was a criminal before, Bill didn't think Scott is bad guy like Darren. Therefore, he let Scott and his friends stay to work at Pym Tech.

"There is no salary. I need a job that I can support my family."

"Why don't you quit the Avenger?"

"Good idea! But Cassie could not allow that happened."

"Do you worried about your daughter? She is the Avenger too."

"No! Cassie can work with pretty much anyone, like Peter. I'm not worry about that.."

"So, now it's time. You can do more than you think, " Scott looked at Bill, "Pym Tech's want you, Scott. I believe that you will be our CEO someday."

Scott shook his head, " No! I don't have good business sense... Besides, Hank hoped his daughter will takeover his business. By the way, is she here today?"

"I sent her an invitation. Honestly, I am not sure she will come."

"She still hate Hank?" Scott heard about Hank's family matter.

"It seems like an insoluble problem. I saw Hope once when she was graduated from University. When she knew Darren was a threat, she wanted to help her father, but..."

"Hank rejected it."

"Yes."

"We know that Hank just wanted to protect her."

"If you asked me, she may not willing to takeover the company."

"Hank was gone..." Scott was a little bit upset. "She should let it go."

"Have fun, Scott! Enjoy the party!" Bill gave Scott a glass of champagne and leave him alone.

"Do my best..." Scott drank it all up. When he walked to the table in order to get a new one, a hand reached for the same glass of champagne that Scott was going to take. "Sorry, you first..." He raises his head, and saw a woman with bob haircut.

"Thanks." She took a glass of champagne and drank it. Scott looks over at the lady in front of him, she's like a magnet. He just can't help but be curious about her. She looks so familiar, but Scott can't remember a thing. At the same time, she noticed Scott keep staring at her. "Do you want to drink?"

"Yes... I forgot it." Scott took another glass, but didn't drink it. He tries to act natural, started introduction. "I am..."

"Scott Lang. Former employee of Vista Corp."

"Yes...How do you know?"

"I saw you on TV. A interview when you were in prison, and you were subdued by prison guard in the end."

"Oh..." That was really an embarrassing moment for Scott, he was provoked by the reporter's questions, he became more and more angry, and the prison guard used stun gun on him.

"It's hard to believe that you worked in Pym Tech now."

"Yeah... Things change I guess. I bet most people who know me don't believe that I actually work there. They probably don't expect me to turn my life around."

"They are jealous because you are Avenger now. Who doesn't love superhero? "

"But some people probably don't think I made a very good superhero."

"I think all of the girls in this room want a superhero to be their boyfriends."

"Maybe. I do not know what they think..." Scott was confused what she said "I'm nothing special."

"If this is true, why Hank chose you?", it make Scott think about Hank again. He keeps silent for a moment while he processes the possibility of leave. She decided not waiting for his response and said. "Why don't you ask me to dance?"

"Um?" Scott's thoughts are quickly interrupted though."... I'm not good at dancing."

"Oh...It's okay. Not big deal."

"...I'm not going to refuse you," He realized he have to be polite to the guest and should be careful the words. "I just afraid that I might stepped on your feet. If you don't mind... Shall we dance, Miss?"

"For sure." She accepted.

X X

"You danced well." She commented after they danced for a few minutes.

"Thank you, so are you." Scott replied. "I haven't been dancing for a long time, especially such beautiful lady."

"You are a sweet talker."

"I'm not lying, you are a charmer." It is true, she is so pretty. Especially she smiles at Scott, it light up his world. He's never seeing the girl's smile so close after divorce."Can I ask you a question?"

"Am I single?"

"No... I'm not. No... I am." Scott felt lost. Actually, he very interested in seeing how she answers that question. "I mean... Can I know that?"

"Unfortunately, I'm not gonna tell you."

"... Of course... you can choose not answer it."

"So... what do you want to know?"

"Have we met before?"

"Have we?"

"I think I have seen you somewhere, you look so... familiar." Scott still can't remember.

"We just met few minutes ago."

"Yes... We only just met tonight..." Scott felt a little embarrassed, "Maybe I mistook you from someone else."

"Who?" Obviously, it piquing her curiosity.

"Um... she is... I don't know..." Scott didn't understand how to answer it, "Maybe just like a beautiful lady like you."

"Oh..." Suddenly, she felt like someone's watching them, a man with glasses in the corner. Thus, she get closer to Scott as a cover.

"Wow..." His heart skips a beat when he admits she's beautiful. He feels even more drawn to her but he knows his response would be wrong somehow if he were to say that. He decides to try to keep his cool like nothing happened, but he can definitely tell that he's blushing.

"I am very independent. I don't rely on other people."

"It sounds like you are a career woman, do you have your own established business?" He asked.

"In recent years, I have been designing some things."

"Design? Are you a fashion designer?"

"You can say that."

"This dress is designed by you, right? " He continued, "Black and red, these matches your skin tone perfectly."

"I think so. They are the main colors of my new work, it is a suit."

"I can't wait to see your work."

"You will." She leaned nearer, her lips closed to his ear. "You will be the first person to see."

Scott looked into her eyes, it made he feel like he would be swallowed by this woman. Meanwhile, she looks familiar to Scott, but he didn't remember who she is.

"My pleasure..." Scott tried to respond, "We talking for awhile but I don't know your name yet. May I have your name?"

"You will know soon enough, " she answered. "We'll Meet Again. I have to go now."

"I can give you a ride." Scott suggested.

"No." She rejected immediately, "As I said, I am very independent. I don't rely on other people. I can call taxi." She bowed to Scott as she left the ballroom.

His eyes were still watching her until the security supervisor walk beside him, "Scotty! Why do you keep standing? "

"Luis... I am thinking of something."

Luis pulled Scott aside and said, "I am responsible for security tonight. I want to thank you absolutely, but you were standing in the center consistently, the guests tried to avoid you."

"Sorry, I'm just distracted." Scott didn't want Luis to get in trouble.

Luis patted his on the shoulder. "I know today is a big day. It would be better if Dr Pym is still alive. I know it, bro!"

"Yes... I am thinking of Hank tonight, but..."

"But what?"

"Luis, I have to check CCTV footages, and give me the guest list."

"What's happened? Oh my god! Terrorist attack our ceremony? Should we call the police? We need to block all exit? What should I say when I accept media interviews?"

"Stay calm, Luis! No Terrorist in our party!" Scott explained to Luis, "I want to confirm one thing."

About the WHIH interview, it is a short film that produced by Marvel Studio. You can watch it on Youtube.

We'll Meet Again

Scott picked up his daughter from high school today because Cassie would stay at Scott's home during summer holidays.

"Daddy!" Cassie saw Scott's car was parked on the side of the road.

"Hey Peanut! How was school today?" He asked.

She sat on the front passenger seat, "Don't call me Peanut in school!"

"Sorry, I forget it. I have not seen you for such a long time. I miss you!"

"I miss my suit." she continued, "People miss Ant-man and Stinger."

"It means New York city is a safe place, it's good." Scott drove away after Cassie fastened the seat belt.

"I can fight all the bad guys."

"It's impossible. There so many bad guys in the world!"

"This's why people need the Avengers!"

At the beginning, Scott and Maggie not allowed Cassie to be an avengers, it's the most dangerous job in the world. Cassie never gave up, and she spent a lot of time on training. Such as joining lacrosse team, learning quantum physics etc. She wanna prove herself to be superhero. Her parents were against this idea, but she talked them into it finally. There was only one condition that set by Maggie: Be with Scott.

Superhero Father-Daughter duo formed, Ant-man and the Stinger!

"So... I heard that you danced with a beautiful lady last week, in the ceremony."

"What? Who said that?" Scott felt shocked.

"Who is she?"

"A guest. Yes, I asked her for dance, it is common in the party. Everyone did."

"But Uncle Luis said that you checked the CCTV footages and the guest list after the ceremony."

"Luis... " Scott couldn't believe that Luis told Cassie everything.

"You act like a stalker, Dad." She knitted her brows, "It's terrible."

"No, I am not!" Scott tried to explain, "I just... I want to... Okay, It's because of security concerns."

"She's a wanted woman? Terrorist?"

"I don't know... I don't hope so..." He answered confusedly.

Who is this Mystery Woman? Scott checked the CCTV footages and the guest list in order to find out the answer. He couldn't believe that his dancing partner is the largest shareholder of Pym Tech, Ms Hope Pym. Scott never met Hank's daughter before but one photo, a teenage girl with long hair. Hank mentioned that the photo was sent by his daughter who studied in boarding school. Ms Pym had changed her hairstyle and looked so different, it made Scott can't make out her face.

"Why she chose to dance with me? Why she hide her identity? What does she mean that we will meet again? What does she want?" So many questions in his mind.

"I'm overly concerned probably." According to their conversation last week, Ms Pym is a fashion designer now, maybe she has no interest in taking over the family business. But somehow Scott felt that the air was full of dangerous when they danced. "Alright, What's for dinner tonight? Pizza? Or..." The rear windshield were shattered suddenly when he asked Cassie for the suggestion of the dinner.

"What's happened?" Fortunately, they sat in the front seat and not get injured.

Scott immediately observed from the rear mirror, but there was nobody. However, other parts of the car were suffered from various degree of damages, "I'm not sure, but we were attacked."

The attack was stopped when he drove the car into the corner. They got out of the car as Scott confirmed that they were not tracked.

"Are you okay?" A father worried about his daughter.

"I am fine. Dad, your arm..." She saw one of his arm was cut by the broken glasses and bleeding.

"It's doesn't matter. We can buy bandage later."

"Do you see any person?"

"I see nothing!" He shook his head, "But I know they have weapon. Anyway, there is a supermarket, we buy some first-aid supplies at first."

"Yes. Let's go." Cassie put an arm around him, and went into supermarket. She selected appropriate first-aid product for her father, "I think they can fly."

"Why do you think that?"

"If they can fly and shrink like us, it will be difficult to find their presence." She expressed her thought.

"Do you mean Darren Cross? He died." Nonetheless, Scott agreed that it's reasonable guess. "We'd better discuss it with the other avengers, they maybe someone we have fought against before."

A female joined their conversation unexpectedly, "That's not necessary!" They looked behind, A woman who worn a red and black suit with a black mask.

"Because both of you will not outlive today..." A woman kicked at the girl, and Cassie fell to the ground.

"Cassie!" Scott wanted to help his daughter, but his injured hand was caught by the woman, then, she gave him a punch on the face, " You should protect yourself first!"

Scott was attacked continuously, and she seems like received combat training after his observation, it isn't good idea to fight with his bare hands so he has to suit up. At this moment, Cassie got up and attacked the opponent from behind, clasp her neck. Scott managed to escape and ran away. However, the woman quickly got rid of Cassie's restraint, and slammed her elbow into Cassie's waist, and she fell to the ground again.

"As an avenger, your skill is really awful." A woman commented.

"Who are you?" Cassie asked.

Meanwhile, the staff and the customers came over to check, "What's happened?" "Call 911!" "Is it cosplay party?"

"Look! We have audiences! Very good, let me show you something... (She randomly chose a man who was holding a phone in his hand and fired the laser from blasters on the right hand. The person fell to the ground while the others dispersed immediately) Guy! It is not over, come back!

"Don't hurt people..." Cassie can't stand up from the ground as the woman stomped on her back.

"Poor girl!" She aimed the blaster at Cassie's head, "It's time to say goodbye..."

Suddenly, she lost her balance and fell down. Next, a man who wore Ant-man suit appeared and raised Cassie from the floor.

"Are you okay?" Cassie nodded her head, "Escorted people away first," and then, he looked at the woman, "I will handle it."

"Be careful." She left them alone.

Woman tried to shoot Cassie again, and Scott shrunk his size and attacked her arm on time, making her unable to aim at Cassie. "Damn!"

Scott backed to the normal size, "Look, I really don't want to hurt you."

"I wouldn't stress about it." She replied and used the blaster again.

Scott changed his size again, but she continued to attack, it made the goods and shelves of the supermarket were scattered all over the floor.

"This blaster is ten times the power of Stinger, I could kill you today!" She couldn't speculate about his track as Scott change his size over and over again, and she became impatient in this situation. "Don't shrink yourself!"

Scott did and faced to her, "So... Can you stop now, lady?" he continued, "Don't hurt people anymore."

"I don't care!" She started to punch and kicking Scott, and he avoid easily since he shrink himself again. With constant physical exertion, when she was still looking for him, Scott caught her hand, and kicked her belly, just like she did same thing to Cassie at the beginning, she fell to the ground in the end.

"Alright! It's time to end the fight." He walked next to her, her hand still pressing on the belly and panting. "I don't want to fight you, but you hurt my daughter first, I have to do something."

"I'm not lose."

"What?"

"The suit. You can't win without it." She claimed, " But this doesn't belong to you."

"What are you talking about?" Scott didn't understand.

"I'm obviously better than you. Nevertheless, my dad chose you over me."

"Your dad?" Now, Scott realized that the woman in front of him was Dr. Pym's daughter. "Oh my god! You are..." Scott hasn't finish the sentence as Hope took the opportunity to kicked his crotch and rolled over to press Scott under her.

"What a stupid idiot! I don't know why Hank gave you the suit, you shouldn't have it!"

"Ms Pym, I can explain..."

"Stop! When he decided to shut me out, I dropped his name. And, I don't want any connection with his company. Everything is his fault!"

"He wants to protect you..."

"Unfortunately, he can't protect himself." Hope mocked.

Her fingers move to Scott's helmet and release it. Scott felt her breath against his neck as Hope leaned down, they're getting so close now.

"I'm sorry about Hank..."

"He asked for it." Hope shook her head, "But I blamed on you!"

"I blame myself too, I'll make up for everything. I swear."

"You can..." She raised her up and aimed the blaster at Scott's head, "Retire today..."

When the blaster was turned to maximum power, they heard emergency vehicle sirens outside the supermarket constantly.

"God! They came!" Scott knew they're surrounded by police.

"FBI ! Drop your weapon now!" It announced by FBI agent.

"OK!" Hope's arm aimed to the entrance of the supermarket and shot, all glasses were broken by the power. "Lucky man! You're still alive today."

"You can't leave now..."

"Don't worry about it!" She pinched Scott's injured arm hard. "Our fight is not over yet."

Hope disappeared from his sight, and Scott staggered to his feet and walked out of the supermarket.

"Don't move!" FBI warned Scott.

"He is my dad." Cassie explained to them and ran to Scott, "Are you okay?"

"My heart is still beating, Peanut. Can you hear?"

"I can." Cassie relieved and give his dad a big hug. "Where is she?"

"Hi, everyone!" Hope stood on the rooftop, "Wow! There's so many people in here, and media too. Maybe I should stay a bit longer."

"I am FBI agent, Jimmy Woo." A man commanded, "Madam, drop your weapon now!"

She ignored his warning and said, "Mr. Lang...One day, you will know you are not deserved to be Ant-man." Then, the wings behind her stretched out and flew towards the sky. FBI tried to shoot her, but failed. They and Scott watched her fly higher and faster in the darkness.

X X

The next day, Scott and Cassie were asked to assist with their investigation. Scott knew who is she but did not disclose it to the FBI. The incident was gradually heated up by the media, they named the attacker based on her red and black suit, which called "Red Queen."

She'd be more ready

A Meeting in the Avengers headquarter.

"Guy! What do you think of Red Queen? Is it someone we know?" asked by Steve Roger.

Natasha shook her head, "We watched lots of TV news already, the only thing we know that she is a woman."

"How about you, Scott?" Steve looked at Scott, "What does she wants?"

"I don't know, Cap!" He continued, "As Natasha said, she is a woman, but I have no idea who is she."

"According to the video, she has the wings and blasters." Tony mentioned.

"Exactly like you, Cassie!" Peter sounded surprised.

"So, she tried to copy my suit?" Cassie thought, "How does she do it?"

"Hold on..." Scott had to stop them, "Do you mean someone steal the Pym Particles, and then, design the suit? It's ridiculous!"

"We can't ruled out the possibility, Scott!"

"Yes, especially the Pym Particles are miracle. I want a piece of the action if you would like to share." Tony patted Scott's shoulder.

"Over my dead body!"

"Hey!"

"Dad! Uncle Tony is just joking, right?"

"Of course!" Tony gave her a wink. "Anyway, I agree with Cap, Red Queen is strongly equipped, she attacked you two in order to steal Dy Pym's research."

Scott was speechless, he didn't know how to explain to them. If he disclosed Red Queen is Hank's daughter, they must announce it to the public, including FBI and the media. Hank and Bill tried so hard to protect Hope. How can he do this? No, he can't do this. He wanna protect this girl, for Dr Pym.

"Maybe she is confederates of Darren Cross." Cassie had a own thought.

"He's dead. He's not the most stable guy, and did not trust everyone, even Dr Pym. I don't think Darren would cooperate with others." Scott responded.

"I remembered you telling me that the HYDRA take the particles away, right?"

"Not Pym Particles, Tony." Scott recalled, " That's Cross Particles which is more unstable and dangerous."

"For the HYDRA, it is necessary for them to make the weapon, probably Red Queen work for them."

"We don't even know who is she! How can you..."

"OK. Stop, guy!" Steve interrupted the argue, "Red Queen chose to attack you and Cassie in front of the public, it means she is not afraid that her identity would be exposed.

"Cap... Do you mean Red Queen would attack Cassie again?" Peter looked at Cassie.

"I won't be afraid! We should fight back!"

"No! We should stand back!"

"Dad?" Cassie can't believe it, "We are the Avengers..."

"If this is a targeted attack, we shouldn't take risks."

"No... we have to do something."

"I have to protect you first."

"Enough!" She roared and ran off, and Peter tried to bring her back.

"I know you're not feeling well, Scott."

"I am fine, Cap!"

"Of course, you're not!"

"Come on, Tony..." Steve knew that Tony was given to using bitter sarcasm.

"One year ago, Dr Pym was shot before you destroyed the evil plans of Darren Cross. Next, Cassie asked you for approval of being the Avengers. And now..."

"Sorry, Cap! I need to rest for few weeks. Cassie too." Scott left after said.

"Tony, can you please consider other people's feelings?"

"I did, Cap!" Stark respond to his question, "Red Queen is a threat. Absolutely. We need to find out who she is before the next attack."

"I agree, but it's not easy. Scott has no idea about Red Queen."

"Really? You believe it?"

"As you can see, Scott really care about his daughter. If he know who is Red Queen, he would talk it out instead of conceal."

"Well, I hope so..."

XX

In Pym Tech...

"Scotty! I watched TV last night. Why don't you stay home and have a rest?" Luis advised.

"I'm okay, Luis. I just slightly injured my arm. And, I've got a lot of things to do."

"Slightly injured? No! No! No... All we know Red Queen is true badass, she can fly and her arms... Wow, I love it, man!" Luis just expressed how he interested in the Red Queen suit.

"Unfortunately, you can't buy it from Walmart or Amazon." It's not funny. Especially for the Avengers, Red Queen is big threat and they're planning to war with her. Scott have to stop it. "We should get back to work, Luis..."

"No! No! No! You should go home..."

"Luis!" A man with glasses walk next to them.

"Dr Foster? I'm not slacking, I just persuade Scotty to go home. "Luis explained to Bill first.

"I know. But now, I have something to discuss with Scott. Business."

"Business?" Luis repeated the word.

"Yes. Business!"

"Ok... Um... "

"Luis..." Luis turned his head to Scott, "I'm fine!"

"OK..." Luis left them alone, "Take care of yourself, buddy!"

"I do." Scott replied, "Thank you, Bill."

"You're welcome!" Bill continued, "But honestly, you should have a rest."

"If you say it, it means everybody know what happened last night?"

"Today Headline." Bill passed a newspaper to Scott, it stated "Avengers attacked by Red Queen".

"Oh God!" Scott watched the newspaper with narrowed eyes, even the content is negative, they didn't mention who is Red Queen, this is only good new for Scott. And then, he asked, "What's about the board..."

"Not to worry, I will deal with them."

" I'm sorry for all the fuss. Bill. "

"It's doesn't matter. So... Do you know who is she?"

"Er... No, we have no idea!" Scott decided to keep the secret. "Why do you interested in her?"

"The suit... Red Queen... it's similar to something, don't you think that?"

" Similar to what?"

"If you ask me, someone try to copy Hank's research." Bill thought.

"You're not the only one said that." Scott inwardly sighed.

"It means the Avenger also think that?"

"Bill, I don't know what I'm supposed to say... Yes, her target is me, but I have no idea about her and why did she attack me."

"Maybe she is your ex-girlfriend." Bill joked.

"Of course not! " Scott daren't even think that, "We just..."

"Come on, Scott! I'm kidding." He pat Scott's injured arm after said, "Sorry, I forgot..."

"It's okay, Bill." Scott claimed. "It was a flesh wound."

"I don't think so." He looked at Scott's face, " Maybe you should go home and take a rest."

"No!" He resisted, "Especially Pym Tech will set up the business on the West Coast soon, I have to go back to work."

" Yes, this is a very important milestone for the Pym Tech."

"I wish Dy Pym could see it."

"He will." Bill assured the young man, "Janet too."

"Yes...So... What about our largest shareholder? Did she contact you back?" He tried to gather information from Bill.

The man shook his head, " I hope she can contact me." He continued, "But she came to party last week."

"Oh! Really?" Scott pretended to be an innocent boy. "How do you know?"

"I checked the guest list after party." Bill answered, "And you too, Luis mentioned that you checked it."

"Hmm... for the safety reasons. And, I don't know Ms Pym really came to party."

"Yes, she just stayed for a short time."

"That's why we cannot see her."

Bill opened the door to his office, "I would like to talk about our business with her."

"You want her to be in-charge of the West Coast Headquarter?" Scott sat down.

"I think Hope is the only choice. She stayed in California for a long time."

"How long?"

"Since she was seven."

"Oh... boarding school, I remember that." Scott can't imagine Hank sent his daughter to West Coast while he chose to stay in New York alone over the years. "It's quite long."

"Yes," Bill showed Scott some paper, "She graduated from Berkeley University a few years ago. "

"BBA?"

"MBA now." Bill turned to next page and passed it to Scott. "And, engineering."

"Wow...two master's degrees, it's so great, she is a genius, right? " Scott focused on the photo on top instead of the text, exactly same person, " How do you get these?"

"I was a visiting professor in Berkeley."

"Oh... I appreciate your work, Bill." Scott continued, "But, do you think Ms Pym really interested in take over the company?"

"Why do you say that?"

Because she don't want. Of course, he can't tell Bill. "Well... If Ms Pym has a preparation to take over the Pym Tech, she should take the initiative to chat with you in the party. But she didn't."

"You mean she wants to give up her family business? Come on, Scott! It is hard to get accepted to a dual degree in Berkeley, especially MBA/MEng. It's essential step to become leader in our industry."

"It doesn't mean that she willing to take over. This is her personal choice, may not preparing for the company."

"Scott, before you was chose to be Ant-man, Hope asked to wear the suit."

"Hank rejected it."

"Yes, it proved she also wanted to protect the suit. She won't give up her family business. I think with all this time to prepare, she'd be more ready." CEO had confidence in expressing his opinions .

She's ready to kill me. Sad but true, Scott gathered a lot of information in the conversation, Ms Pym planned to take her father's suit back a long time ago, it is not easy to solve this problem."So... what's next? What do we do now?"

"Have you ever been to San Francisco?" He said with a smirk on his face.
