Chapter 1 :

I tip toed through my house leaving quietly to go do my nightly training . As i was walking through the forest to go near the pond to train , I sensed a faint chakra , though i choose to ignore it judging of how faint far away it was from me .

As i was walking back home i saw my dog Charlie outside of the house barking and then I noticed my house door was open more like broken .

I walked worriedly to my house and trying my best to hide my chakra .

And as soon as i walked in the stench of blood filled my nostrils panicking i ran up the stairs to check on my parents and brother .

I was relieved when i saw them all fine except for some scratches here and there . "If you're fine then from where was that scent of blood coming from ? " I asked them and they pointed towards their rooms and mine included i found ninjas on the floor lying in a pool of their own blood , as expected from the l/n clan . Even though it wasn't the first time we got attacked from enemies targeting our powers .

My eyes widened I noticed that they were from the hidden village in the sound , "They're from the sound !" I said "no shit Sherlock " answered Haru , i rolled my eyes at his usual teasing attitude . "Well that was enough for us to realize that this place is no longer safe for us" said dad and my mom nodded in agreement , "Where do we go now ?" asked Haru , "Back to the hidden leaf ?" I asked "Correct n/n , now then lets not waste any time for we know what their motive is , pack as fast as you can take the mandatory items" said dad in urgency .

L/n clan known as one of the strongest clans in the hidden leaf village , thanks to their keiki genki and huge amount of chakra flow . Though not all members of the clan get the keiki genki but are born with the huge chakra flow . Their keiki genki is called Shirakan which allows them to create any weapon with their chakra .

Being one of them also made the clan a target for enemies causing danger for the village which caused them to scatter in the forests outside the borders of Konoha from their own free will even though the third hokage was against it .

Dad sent a bird messenger to send the third a notice of our return , ever since my brother and i were born we lived here , and this will be the first time i go back to my village ..... home .
